SKINCU COLOR CHANGING LIPSTICK

PART 1 | HOOKS

Three openers. All run to 00:09 and hand over to the shared body at 00:10.

HOOK A | Original

CLIP / TIME	SCRIPT
00:00	ACTION: She talks from her car in a green top. Cut to doorbell camera footage: her husband arrives with a suitcase, rings, and steps back when she opens the door.
00:00	UGC: For a full second, my husband of twenty years did a double take at his own front door.
00:05	ACTION: Cut to her at home, laughing, holding up two clear tubes.
00:05	UGC: Here's the ridiculous reason.

The source opening with the gag softened. Doorbell footage in the first three seconds is the strongest scroll stop available here, because it looks like something that actually happened. This is the control.

HOOK B | A lipstick with no colour

CLIP / TIME	SCRIPT
00:00	ACTION: Kitchen table, two glasses of wine. Her neighbour opens her handbag.
00:00	UGC: My neighbour handed me a lipstick with no colour in it and told me to use it every morning for ten days.
00:05	UGC: I thought she'd lost her mind. Then my husband got home.

Leads on the object rather than the husband. A lipstick with no colour in it is a contradiction the viewer has to resolve, and it gets the product on screen immediately.

HOOK C | Just good

CLIP / TIME	SCRIPT
00:00	ACTION: She checks her reflection in a compact mirror in the car and smiles.
00:00	UGC: I caught myself in the mirror the other day and thought, I actually look good.
00:05	UGC: Not good for forty five. Not good for being tired. Just good. Here's what changed.

Pulls the mirror moment from 01:44 to the front. Softest of the three, and the only one that is about her rather than about a reaction from somebody else. Worth testing precisely because it is the opposite bet.

PART 2 | MAIN SCRIPT (SHARED BODY)

Runs identically under all three hooks.

CLIP / TIME	SCRIPT
00:10	ACTION: In the car, she applies the clear tube. Cut to doorbell footage of the two of them hugging. Cut to a FaceTime screen recording, him in a suit at the office.
00:10	UGC: Okay, this is my favourite story to tell, because it's ridiculous. My husband went away for work for ten days.

CLIP / TIME	SCRIPT
00:18	ACTION: Giulia comes through the front door with a bottle of red. The two of them at the kitchen table with wine and snacks.
00:18	UGC: While he was gone, my neighbour Giulia came over for wine, and I was complaining about how tired I look.
00:26	ACTION: A shot of her driving with no makeup on, two young children in the back.
00:26	UGC: I'm forty five. I've got two kids. I look tired because I am tired.
00:32	UGC: And I'd stopped bothering with colour completely. Whatever I put on was gone by eleven, and what was left had crept into the lines round my mouth.
00:41	ACTION: Giulia smiles, reaches into her black handbag, and takes out a small clear tube. She uncaps it and holds it up.
00:41	UGC: And Giulia, who's fifty three, and whose lipstick is always exactly where she put it, every single time I see her, morning or evening, she goes,
00:51	GIULIA: Let me give you something.
00:53	UGC: She comes back with this little tube, and there's no colour in it at all.
00:58	GIULIA: Use this every morning while he's away. Trust me.
01:02	UGC: So I did.
01:04	ACTION: She swipes it on with a black hairband in. Hold, no cut. The colour develops on her mouth in real time.
01:04	UGC: Every morning, just this one thing. One swipe, and about thirty seconds later, the colour just came up.
01:12	UGC: Not a shade I picked. Mine.
01:15	ACTION: Graphic animation. An ordinary lipstick as a layer sitting on top of a lip, sliding off the edge. Then colour rising from inside the lip itself.
01:15	UGC: She explained it. There's no pigment in the tube. It reads the pH of your own lips and builds the colour out of that.
01:24	UGC: Then it binds to the lip instead of sitting on top of it. Not painted on. Built out of you.
01:31	ACTION: Close on her mouth. No filter. The lines around it are clearly visible.
01:31	UGC: And the lines round my mouth are still there, by the way. I'm not going to pretend they went anywhere.
01:37	UGC: The colour just stopped ending up in them. Every single morning, same thing. Still there at six.
01:44	ACTION: In the car, she picks up the compact mirror, checks her reflection and smiles at camera.
01:44	UGC: By the time he was due home, I'd catch myself in the mirror and think, whoa, I actually look good.
01:51	UGC: Not good for being tired. Just good.
01:54	ACTION: Doorbell camera. He rings with his case. She opens the door. He steps back.
01:54	UGC: So my husband gets home. Rings the doorbell. I open the door, and he actually steps back.
02:01	HUSBAND: ...Did you do something?
02:04	UGC: Twenty years, and he stood on his own doorstep doing maths.
02:08	ACTION: The two of them on the sofa, laughing. Close on the tube.

CLIP / TIME	SCRIPT
02:08	UGC: He spent the rest of the night going, what did you do? What did you do?
02:13	UGC: What I did was use the Skincu colour changing lipstick.
02:17	ACTION: Beauty shot, she pushes her hair back. Cut to her in the car.
02:17	UGC: It doesn't sit on top of your lips and hope. It comes out of them.
02:22	UGC: Giulia told me it's Korean, and every woman she knows over fifty has one. Apparently it's completely normal over there.
02:30	UGC: She said the reason those women always look put together isn't some big mystery. They just use the right thing.
02:37	ACTION: A finger swatches the clear bullet. A foot opens a bin and a handful of old lipsticks goes in. She applies it quickly at the mirror.
02:37	UGC: I'm never using anything else. One product, thirty seconds, and apparently enough to confuse my husband of twenty years.
02:45	ACTION: She laughs in the car. Quick replay of his face at the door. She holds up two tubes. Flat lay of the packaging.
02:45	UGC: And honestly? The look on his face was worth everything.
02:49	UGC: It's the Skincu colour changing lipstick. Buy one get one free on right now, with a thirty day money back guarantee.
02:56	ACTION: A photo grid of sixteen different real women applying it. She holds the tube forward.
02:56	UGC: Over 127,000 women over forty have already switched. Tap below.
03:01	ACTION: Animated end card. BUY ONE GET ONE FREE. SKINCU. SHOP NOW. With a 3D shot of the open tube.

PRODUCTION NOTES

- The doorbell camera footage has to look like doorbell camera footage. Wide angle, slightly fisheyed, timestamp in the corner, compressed. If it is shot properly on a real camera the whole premise falls over.
- At 01:04 the colour develops in real time on her actual mouth, one shot, no cut, no speed ramp, in her own bathroom light.
- At 01:31 the camera is close and unfiltered and the lines are genuinely visible. She says it lightly, almost as an aside, which is what makes it land in this format.
- The car scenes are the spine. Phone propped on the dash, daylight, engine off, no ring light. She is telling a friend a story she has clearly told before.
- At 02:01 the husband gets four words and he should sound genuinely confused rather than impressed. The joke is that he cannot work out what is different.
- Every lipstick going into the bin at 02:37 must be unbranded and unrecognisable. That shot is a claim about other products if any of them can be named.
- The sixteen woman photo grid at 02:56 needs real footage or it should be cut. A grid of stock models undoes the doorbell camera in one second.
- Cutdowns: a 60 second version keeps the hook, 00:41 to 01:03, 01:04 to 01:14, 01:31 to 01:43, 01:54 to 02:16 and the offer. The mirror moment at 01:44 is the first thing to go and the lines beat is the last.
